

Cognizant bags deal from Cholamandalam Investment

Cognizant said it has bagged a deal from Cholamandalam Investment and Finance Company to transform the vehicle finance business operations on the digital platform. No financial details were disclosed. The move is aimed at helping the financial services division of Murugappa Group to enhance operational efficiency. As part of the agreement, Cognizant would develop multi-channel applications across mobile, tablets and web platform for the field staff and customers to make real-time decision making and improve productivity.