

Name of the Publication: Saakal Times

Date: 22.11.2013

Edition: Pune

Headline: Awareness camp for truck drivers held

Awareness camp for truck drivers held

Pune: Sacha Saathi, a two-day social awareness camp, was recently conducted in Market Yard and Nagar Road for truck drivers, owners and small fleet operators.

The camp was conducted by Cholamandalam Investment and Finance Company with the objective to understand the needs of truckers, drivers and small fleet operators and support them by adding value to their life through expert guidance and counselling.

The camp included activities like free a health check-up, vehicle maintenance tips, safe driving training, first aid training, awareness on loans and schemes and special career counselling for their children. The camp received an enthusiastic response and was attended by more than 300 truckers on the first day. 57